Additional Information:	Include here any other information you wish the Board to consider in relation to your Notice of Intent to provide oral traditional evidence. Timiskaming First Nation acknowledges submitting a Notice of Intent to provide oral traditional evidence; however, Timiskaming First Nation maintains the right to revoke the Notice of Intent at any point in the National Energy Board's review of the Energy East Project. Timiskaming First Nation adheres to Algonquin protocols, practices, customs and traditions that determine the appropriate way to gather oral histories. The National Energy Board must adhere to these existing protocols in carrying out the collection of oral traditional evidence. Respect and deference must always be shown. Timiskaming First Nation retains sole ownership rights over all oral traditional evidence generated by it independently of this Notice of Intent, including where shared with the National Energy Board, as well as all stories, language, songs, symbols, proverbs, practices, ceremonies, art, paintings, drawings, laws, customs, rituals, inventions, understandings, medicines, technologies, expressions or identities.
